

THIS IS IOWA

Showcasing Professional Developers of Iowa and the Travel Federation of Iowa.

Join the Iowa tourism and economic development industries to showcase the positive impact we make on the State of Iowa.

The Professional Developers of Iowa (PDI) is a statewide non-profit organization of more than 320 practicing economic development professionals dedicated to expanding the economy of the State of Iowa. In order to compete with other states and countries, Iowa must create a business climate that enhances our strengths, expands the state's tax base, creates and retains high-paying jobs, and builds the industries of the future.
